Robins & Morton's Aimee Comer (left) and American Behavioral's Ashley Halsey

Robins & Morton has built a reputation as one of the Southeast's premier healthcare contractors and our company's success is directly related to our employees. It's my goal as Director of Human Resources to provide the tools our employees need to fulfill their personal lives. Ashley Halsey and the staff at American Behavioral help me do just that.

Ashley and the American Behavioral team assist our employees and their families to find solutions to life's challenges. Her proactive attitude and attention to detail help the people of Robins & Morton navigate financial, health, and stress-related issues, while providing solutions that allow them to reach their personal potential.

As true partners in reaching Robins & Morton's commitment to provide employees with a healthy climate for work and family, our relationship with Ashley Halsey and American Behavioral is built to last.
